

The Lodge of Four Seasons provides the perfect backdrop for magical winter weddings, festive holiday parties, and cozy milestone celebrations at the Lake of the Ozarks. Guests are welcomed by panoramic lake views, crackling fireplaces, and the warm, casual elegance that defines this beloved resort. Every event is enhanced by the culinary team's sumptuous creations and the attentive service of The Lodge's professional banquet and catering staff.

Blending hand-selected local stone, rich wood tones, and classic mid-century design, The Lodge of Four Seasons exudes an ambiance that is both inviting and timeless. As one of the region's premier event destinations, the resort features over 65,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor function space, ideal for gatherings of any size—from intimate celebrations to large-scale galas, fundraisers, and conventions of up to 1,800 guests. Elegant venues such as the Granada Ballroom, Marbella Ballroom, and scenic outdoor spaces including the rooftop terrace, Japanese gardens, and lakeside patios, ensure a truly memorable setting for every occasion.

The Lodge of Four Seasons is known for ringing in the new year in style with its annual New Year's Eve celebration. For 2025, guests can enjoy a festive evening that includes a gourmet dinner buffet and hosted bar at HK's Restaurant & Bar, live music, and an after-party in Thirst Lounge featuring John Marsi & The Stingrays. The night continues with party favors, a midnight champagne toast, and the convenience of a comfortable overnight stay. Guests can also start the new year with a hearty breakfast buffet at HK's Restaurant on New Year's Day.

The Lodge's experienced event team is dedicated to turning visions into reality, offering thoughtful and creative ideas for every occasion. Our expert Lodge Wedding & Special Event Manager, Rob Schaefer, is ready to start creating your Memorable event today.
